This year we are running a Off By Heart poetry competition. We are asking all classes to learn one poem a term Off By Heart

The children will be reciting their poems in class for a performance on the last celebration worship of each term. Children will also be able to learn a poem or recite their own work at the celebration worship.

Sparrowhawks – Life Doesn't Frighten Me

Kestrels – The Dentist and the Crocodile

Buzzards – The North Wind

Owls – Incy Wincy Spider

Here is the link (<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1Ej-jqZbZbdUfEbjtp1CAa6z-JCm63-oVLIUqbgUAI/edit?usp=sharing>) for the poems for each class and I look forward to hearing them recited at the end of term.

The best way of learning a poem is not to try and do it all at once. Little and often, line by line, is often the best approach.

Get learning and good luck.....!

*Poetry is a story that is so good it doesn't need
complete sentences*
